

Don't waste your time

You do not need this information from your GP

People often come to their GP to ask for information that should be provided elsewhere or is not required. Typical examples of this information are listed below:

- » Sick notes for school absence
- » Letters in support of housing applications
- » Countersigning passport applications